Home Contents in Transit

Class of customers description

Home Contents Transit Insurance is intended for owners of Home Contents that will be transported anywhere within Australia, to or from Australia or anywhere outside Australia.

Insurance is required to be arranged with an insurance broker who has an AFSL and a current agreement with NTI.

The customer's likely needs, objectives and financial situation, are aligned with the product and its key attributes and would like to be covered for:

- financial loss resulting from destruction, loss or damage to their goods in transit.

Product Description and Key Attributes

The policy has two coverage options available to protect the Home Contents:

1. Accidental Damage available when transported by a professional carrier;
2. Listed Events cover available for when you move the goods yourself or by a professional;

The Product Disclosure Statement explains the details of each.

Key Attributes

- ✓ The policy provides cover for goods while being moved and associated storage periods before the goods reach their final destination. Any storage requested by you needs to be declared and agreed prior to it going into storage.
- ✓ Some individual content items with high values would require verification of value and method of transit.
- ✗ High value items may not always be acceptable.

Eligibility for cover is subject to risk acceptance criteria set by NTI which may change from time to time.

The Product Disclosure Statement contains the detailed policy cover, terms, conditions, additional benefits and exclusions.

Distribution Obligations

How this product is to be distributed:

This product is designed to be distributed by licensed insurance brokers and their authorised representatives who are currently authorised by NTI Limited to distribute this product.

Cover can only be issued to people where they are eligible for that cover in accordance with the application and/or acceptance/renewal criteria that has been approved in writing by the issuer and which complies with relevant laws.

The distribution conditions will make it likely that customers who acquire the insurance product are in the target market, as we consider that the distribution conditions are appropriate and will enable us and our third-party distributors to direct the insurance product to the class of customers who fall within the target market set out above. This has been determined based on an assessment of the distribution conditions and the target market.

Reporting obligations:

Significant Dealings about this product or TMD are to be notified by the Distributor to NTI within 10 business days of becoming aware that the product is not consistent with the TMD.

Details of any other complaint(s) must be reported at the agreed periodic reporting date. Minimum (but not limited to) information to be provided:

- Dates - i.e. received, responded to, resolved etc.
- Type of Complaint - i.e. policy, claim, acceptance, decline, TMD appropriateness.
- Reason for Complaint - i.e. exclusion, acceptance, denial of claim.
- Details of Complaint - information so NTI can understand and consider the matter further. It is expected that any information relating to the initial enquiry giving rise to the claim will be included.

These reporting requirements do not replace or change the obligations of a Distributor to report complaints about this Product in accordance with legislative and regulatory requirements.
